Promoting Chess & Education

2013
SUMMER
CHESS
PROGRAM
AT GARDEN
SCHOOL

The game of chess helps young people learn to concentrate, think logically, overcome obstacles, spot patterns and categorize information.

Open to students from all schools Grades K-9 (5 to 16 years old); Novice, Intermediate and Advanced Levels.

The Summer Chess Program at Garden School is back!

Our chess program uses an interactive and hands-on approach for kids to learn chess. Chess Program activities include chess instruction and lessons, a Chess Lab which includes worksheets, problem solving, and more tactics. Kids will also participate in class Tournament games with notation and clocks making this an exciting and rewarding experience.

Chess is a competitive activity, but, good sportsmanship and fair play are taught as essential elements of the game.

The Benefits of Chess

Chess helps young people learn to concentrate, think logically, overcome obstacles, spot patterns and categorize information. It helps develop problem-solving skills, planning, patience, focus of thought and self-discipline.

About Chess Educators & Garden School

Chess Educators is geared towards the promotion of chess and education. Find out more at www.ChessEducators.com.

Garden School was founded in 1923 to meet the need for a high-quality, independent school in Queens. This mission remains unchanged as the faculty and administration work to offer the student body the best possible education in an atmosphere where both individual goals and those of the community are respected and nurtured.
